About Frac Grand Large

The residency is run by the Frac Grand Large in partnership with the Ecole Supérieure d'art Dunkerque | Tourcoing. Located at a geographic and cultural crossroads (United Kingdom, Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany, etc.), the Frac Grand Large is the leading actor of a network of regional and European partners promoting the circulation of ideas, artists and artworks. Its artistic project is based on its collection, conceived as a tool to build relations with local communities, and its invited artists and curators who anchor their reflection within a context marked by its industrial history and its transformations.

1/ FOCUS

The Frac and Ecole Supérieure d'art Dunkerque | Tourcoing welcome applications that shed light on the artistic, social, and economic links and tensions between art and industry, at a time of ecological urgency and the Anthropocene. The Frac is also particularly interested in research related to art deployed in the public space.

2/ PROGRAMME RESOURCES

The residency offers:

- Artist fees of 2 500 €/month.
- Furnished private accommodation in the city of Dunkirk, suitable for those attending with children.
- Individual studio of 60m² situated in the Ecole supérieure d'art Dunkerque. The studio can also be used as an exhibition space.
- Access to the technical studios of the Ecole supérieure d'art Dunkerque (wood, metal and ceramic workshops, digital and film photo lab, cyclorama/shooting studio, video/sound shooting and post-production equipment, engraving/publishing/screen printing workshops, specialist library).
- Occasional access to a car to travel in the region and further.
- Curatorial support by Keren Detton, director of the Frac.
- Liaison with actors from the local network (associations, corporations, institutions, teachers, artists, curators, journalists, etc.).
- Where possible, support and advice from the Ecole supérieure d'art Dunkerque team.

- Round trip UK / France and local transports will be covered.

3/ ACCESS
